Boy Held After Shooting Of City Policeman

Paris' First Duel In Eight Years

En garde! M. d'Esparbes, left, and M. Gaillard begin on signal.

Despite the continuing hardships of living, Parisians are finding time now to indulge more thoroughly in the cultural aspects of life—such as art, music, philosophy. One such discussion recently, concerning the merits of

Officer Critical From Wounds In Car Theft Arrest

John Birtelsen, 17 years old, Brentwood Bay, was arrested at his home at 10.40 this morning and charged with attempted murder in connection with the shooting of city policeman, Constable Stanley Cornish.

The shooting occurred at 12.10 this morning while Cornish and Constable John Deans Blackstock were investigating a stolen car at Shelbourne Street and Hillside Avenue.

Cornish who was wounded in the abdomen by a .38 calibre bullet, was reported to be in critical condition at Jubilee Hospital. Earlier doctors gave him a one to four chance of living.

Two other 17-year-olds, a boy and a girl both residents of Saanich, were arrested at the time of the shooting and were remanded until Monday, when they appeared before Magistrate Henry C. Hall in juvenile court this morning, charged jointly with stealing the car.

Birtelsen, police said, will appear in juvenile court Monday morning when it is believed he will be transferred, despite his age, to police court.

The youth, tall and slim, was arrested by Detectives Louis Callon and Angus Munro. He was immediately brought to the city jail and booked on the attempted murder charge.

During reading of the charge to him by Callon, he stood quietly, his face expressionless. He showed signs of annoyance only when a photographer took his picture when he was being brought into the police station.

At the time it is alleged he did the shooting he was said to have been dressed in a light brown coat with darker brown pants. At the time of the arrest he was wearing navy blue pants and a brown leather windbreaker.

The car in which the three youths were said to have been riding was owned by Ed. Mallek, 636 Newport Avenue, and was stolen from Fisgard and Douglas Streets between 1.40 and 4.40 Friday afternoon.

Constable Blackstock, who remained on duty the rest of the night after the shooting, said Cornish was shot without any warning.

"Stan (Cornish) and I were

CONSTABLE CORNISH

through work and he was driving home when we spotted the stolen car," Blackstock related. (The policemen had stopped outside Blackstock's home at 1510 Hillside Avenue, four blocks from the intersection of Shelbourne Street, at the time.)

"I said to Stan 'Let's see if we can catch them at the stop sign at Shelbourne.' Stan's car is an old model Ford and the stolen car was traveling east at a fairly high rate of speed. Anyway we high-tailed it after them.

"We drew up alongside the car at the stop sign and I had the front door of Cornish's car open ready to jump. Just as the stolen car was starting to move, I leaped out and grabbed the driver by the arm.

Shot Came As Complete Surprise

"I asked the driver whose car it was and he said it was his father's. So I asked him for the registration slip and he reached down and took it off the steering column and handed it to me.

"As soon as I saw Mallek's name on the slip I called to Cornish to go around to the other side of the car. The three of them were sitting in the front seat and as soon as I got the registration slip the kid on the outside started to fidget around.

"Stan went around and the kid got out. Stan was about eight feet away from him when the kid said 'Get back' firing the gun as he said it.

"It knocked the wind out of my sails. It was the last thing we expected. The driver had up to then answered my questions and I was everything I told him to do.

"The driver had got out of the car too so I grabbed him."

While Blackstock was grappling with the driver, the youth who did the shooting ran north on Shelbourne Street and escaped.

Cornish had buckled up on the street, the bullet entering his abdomen near the navel. At the hospital the slug was found to have passed through the abdomen and was lodged between Cornish's shirt and the belt of his pants.

The injured constable was taken to hospital by Fred Henry, Cordova Bay, who arrived on the scene en route home, shortly after the shooting.

B.C. Police at Duncan, Ladysmith, Nanaimo and Sidney, as well as the force of Saanich, Oak Bay and Esquimalt, were alerted immediately. Highways were blocked and a search instigated which continued throughout the night up to the arrest this morning.

City policemen off duty were called back to work and several members of the force on vacation at the time, voluntarily returned to assist.

Mallek, owner of the stolen car, told police he had left the keys in the ignition. It was the second time in two months that the car, a late-model sedan, had been stolen.

Inspector John Blackstock, cousin of the constable involved, was in charge of the search during the night. He went to the hospital from headquarters on being notified of the shooting and said Cornish was near unconsciousness when he saw him.

'Just A Punk Kid' Says Officer

"I told him to save his strength but he caught hold of me and hung on tight muzzling. 'Just a punk kid,' the police inspector said.

Cornish and Blackstock (constable), often referred to by fellow members of the force as "the brothers" because they were together a great deal, had been on traffic duty at the Clyde Beatty Circus during the evening. Both motorcycle policemen were wearing riding pants and high boots, but had on civilian jackets, when they apprehended the trio.

"No we were not armed," Blackstock said. "We were off shift."

Cornish, who resides with his wife and three-year-old daughter, Marilyn, at 1621 Fernwood Road, joined the police force in December, 1940. He is 32 years old.

Sixth Day Of Strike In Steel Industry Sees Little Change

HAMILTON (CP)—The strike in Canada's basic steel industry passed its sixth day today with the next move toward settlement, a meeting of the House of Commons industrial relations committee Monday at which representatives of the managements of the three strike-bound plants will be invited to make preliminary statements on their position in the dispute.

The strike picture itself remains unchanged. The Steel Company of Canada plant here still maintains partial production. The Algoma Steel Corporation plant at Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., and the Dominion Steel and Coal Corporation plant at Sydney, N.S., are closed although maintenance men are in the plants and limited production continues in the coke ovens.

The House of Commons committee at its meeting Friday adopted a suggestion of Reconstruction Minister Howe that the employers be asked to appear and then meet the representatives of the United Steelworkers of America (C.I.O.) later.

Woods Closure Possible As Heat Wave Creates Serious Fire Hazard On Island

Logging operators on Vancouver Island have been warned by the B.C. Forest Service that the fire hazard now is serious and they should exercise extreme caution in their operations.

While no mention was made of a possible closure of the forests as a fire-protection measure, in the warning sent out to forest rangers throughout Vancouver Island for forwarding to logging operators, it is considered that if the current heat wave continues for a week some action may have to be taken to close the forests.

Despite the hot, dry spell, forest-fire control officers at the headquarters of the B.C. Forest Service here, reported today there was no major fire burning in the Vancouver forest district which includes all Vancouver Island.

Conditions in the Fraser Valley area were reported a little better than on Vancouver Island. Only the Queen Charlotte Islands and the Prince Rupert area were reported to be experiencing conditions which were not hazardous.

No serious fires were reported in the interior forest districts. While rains early in July and throughout June kept the humidity of the refuse on the forest floor high, the current hot, dry spell of weather has deleted this humidity reserve considerably. Hot, dry winds from the interior are blowing into the coast area so that the drying effect on the forests is rapid.

While B.C. Forest Service officers could not confirm that any major logging operations on Vancouver Island had been closed down because of the fire hazard conditions, they believed it was possible that some operators might take their men out of the woods as a precautionary measure. An unconfirmed report said the operations of the Comox Logging and Railway Company on Vancouver Island had been closed.

Abandon Hope For 4 Mine Workers Under 180-Foot Wall Of Clay

DUPARQUET, Que. (CP)—Fifteen-man teams of hardrock miners from this northwestern Quebec mining town of 1,800 persons worked today in their efforts to get through a 180-foot wall of soft and soggy clay in the Beattie Gold Mines under which four men have been trapped.

All hope of reaching the four men alive has been abandoned. Mine manager Harry McGowan, who went down as far as the mine's fourth level Friday night, reported it may take a month to dig a way through the obstacle.

HEARD RUMBLE

Mike Plecash, underground boss in the mine, today said the only warning of the onrush of clay was a rumble. He and Paul Matish, a shift boss, went to investigate. They saw the clay slowly seeping into the shaft and Plecash instructed Matish to go down to the sixth level, 900 feet below the surface, to bring out three men working down there.

"We didn't expect the clay to rush into the shaft," Plecash said. But when Matish was bringing up the three men in the skip, the clay began to slide into the shaft. It is estimated they were just 50 feet above the sixth level when they were trapped.

The men on the surface fought desperately but without success to haul the skip through the onrushing clay. The trapped men were Matish, widower without dependents; Scott Clark, 24-year-old married war veteran with a four-year-old child; Joseph Hemovic, 45, and unmarried; Joseph Bedard, 24, working his last shift before his approaching marriage to Jean de Sureau, which was to have been held next Saturday.

It is believed the men were only some 60 seconds from safety. They had only about 100 feet to go—about a minute's distance for the skip—when they were engulfed.

The mine was just reaching a stage where it was hoped to resume operations after a cave-in three years ago when clay rolled into the "glory hole" left by previous open-pit mining operations and seeped through the shaft then being sunk. The mill has been operating since July 2 with ore from an adjoining property owned by Beattie. No one was injured in the 1943 cave-in.

Boy, Self-Confessed Double Slayer, To Be Psychoanalyzed

OROVILLE, Cal. (AP)—District Attorney J. M. McPherson said today 14-year-old Albert Jones, who confessed two slayings and boasted of plans for a third, would be examined by a psychiatrist, but that the state would demand full satisfaction on double charges of murder.

Albert was arraigned on charges of two murders, one attempted murder and two assaults with intent to murder and was assigned to the juvenile court. If it should decline jurisdiction, the boy would be held for Superior Court trial.

Police said that after the boy confessed strangling 14-year-old Patricia Ann Crandall June 18 and fatally shooting Mrs. H. J. Nielsen last Tuesday, he announced he had chosen a third victim, a boy he called his "best friend."

Police said there was no evidence of any sex crimes.

Oak Bay High School Student Editor First In Victoria In Matric Exams

Denis Hugh Pratt, 18-year-old Oak Bay High School student, who edited "Oak Leaves," the school paper, today headed the list of students who wrote the university entrance examinations in the Greater Victoria area.

With 93.1 per cent, but 0.3 per cent less than the top-ranking student of the province, young Pratt, son of a Dominion income tax assessor, wins a $175 Royal Institution scholarship awarded by the University of British Columbia.

Anna Maria Attfield, a student at St. Ann's Academy school, and Margaret Ellen Creasey, Victoria High School student, tied for second place in the Victoria area, each with 91.4 per cent. They also will receive $175 Royal Institution scholarships.

Top student in the province was Stanley Elmer Graham Trench, student at Philip Shefield High School, Abbotsford, who obtained 93.4 per cent. in the examinations. He also will receive a $175 Royal Institution scholarship.

Likewise, winning a similar scholarship, is Jan Stuart Oostermeyer of Shawnigan Lake (Private) School, who obtained 87.5 per cent. His award is for being top student in the Vancouver Island area (exclusive of Victoria district) and Northern Mainland (exclusive of North Vancouver and West Vancouver). Second place in this area was won by Yoshinori Hiraka of Lillooet High School with 87.1 per cent.

TO VICTORIA COLLEGE

Young Pratt, who lives at 907 St. Patrick Street, was born in Winnipeg and came to Victoria as a child with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Pratt. Before proceeding to Oak Bay High School he had graduated from Monterey School in Oak Bay.

He will proceed to Victoria College this year. As for his scholastic future after that he is not sure, but he would like to go on to the University of British Columbia, working towards Bachelor of Science degree, majoring in biological chemistry.

During the summer Dennis is working at the Summer School of Education here in a supply room, where he also prepares posters and works on the auditorium's stage.

This year he won the Capt. Dexter award at Oak Bay High School.

Outstanding student of the Greater Victoria area last year was George Stewart Cummings, whom young Pratt succeeded as editor of "Oak Leaves."

Pratt was active in school sports, emphasizing rugby and soccer. He was also a sports representative on the student council and a prefect.

He admitted he studied pretty hard during the year.

Like Pratt, Miss Creasey, whose parents live at 1653 Pembroke Street, reports biology her chief scholastic interest. She hopes to proceed to Victoria College this fall and eventually to University of V.C. She is mapping a career in pharmacy.

Born in North Battleford, Sask., she came to Victoria six years ago and entered Victoria High School from Oaklands School.

During the summer she is working in the delivery department of the Hudson's Bay Co. store here.

A natural student, according to her mother, and the winner of several minor awards during her earlier school career, Miss Creasey "did quite a little studying" to achieve her rank.

At Victoria High School she was active in both sport and social life. Basketball and grass hockey were her games. She was a member of the Portia Club, public speaking organization, vice-president of the Junior Red Cross and social convener for the school (in which role she organized several dances and other social events), and former H-Y president.

EDUCATION CAREER

Miss Attfield, 17 years old, was born in Victoria and has attended St. Ann's Academy all her school life. She plans a career in education.

A member of the student council of the academy and class treasurer, she took part in all school activities, including sports but not excelling in any particular game.

Her headmistress reported she was a diligent student who studied quite hard during the term.

She is the daughter of Ernest Attfield, 805 Collins, a porter at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Also winners of Royal Institution $175 scholarships, the first student listed first in the respective districts, with the high school after each name, were the following students:

Gilbert C. E. Small, Kitsilano, and Barbara A. Percy, King Edward; Gilbert C. P. Gray, University High, and Walter D. Duerksen, John Oliver, all in Vancouver; Henry J. Wiebe, Philip Sheffield, Abbotsford, and Eleanor B. Trehearne, Chilliwack; Irene L. Kirshfeldt, Enderby; and Howard Earl Johnston, Enderby; George S. Fukuyama, Revelstoke, and Douglas D. Cake, Trail-Tadana, Trail.

The board of examiners will recommend that a similar award be made to Sara Lee Tidball, Penticton, who because of illness was unable to complete the examination in English language.

In addition to those awarded $175 scholarships, 52 students obtained honor standing of 80 per cent or more, the board reported.

Statements of marks are being mailed to all candidates.

Candidates who failed to pass university entrance examinations are granted credit for all papers in which they have obtained 50 per cent or more.

Supplemental examinations will be held from Aug. 26 to Aug. 31 at Victoria College and Nanaimo and Courtenay High Schools for Vancouver Island students.

In the following lists just those students who have obtained complete standing by examination or recommendation are listed. Only candidates from Vancouver Island schools are listed.

Montreal Gang War May Follow Bombing Of Gambling House

MONTREAL (CP)—The Montreal Gazette said in a news-page story today that "high officials are much worried over the prospect of a gang war in Montreal underworld" following, according to the Gazette, tossing of a powerful "pine-apple" bomb Friday morning at the most important "balbo" game on central Mansfield Street.

"We have enough trouble of all kinds with them without having to put out a brotherly fight," the paper quoted an official as saying, adding that no official comment could be obtained.

The story said "the long-expected 'gang war' for the control of Montreal's highly-profitable gambling racket apparently broke loose" with tossing of the bomb, which missed a window.

Premier King Goes To Paris Conference; Foresees Success

HALIFAX (CP)—Prime Minister King is voyaging to England on his way to the Paris Peace Conference. As he embarked on the liner George here Friday night he said he hoped the conference would "be the beginning of a series which will bring about the final peace."

Mr. King arrived here on the first Montreal-Halifax boat train since the pre-war years.

Aboard ship he said he was "sorry to leave Parliament at the present time," but he said the country's domestic problems were "settling themselves pretty well."

Mr. King said he was confident the Paris conference would be successful. He added further conferences concerning Germany and Japan would follow, but he could not say when these would be held.

He also expressed himself as "very glad personally to have a chance of getting first-hand information on the situation in Germany." He intended to talk with Allied leaders in Berlin and visit the European battlefields after the conference.

"It's been a year of conferences," Mr. King said, "and it's been hard for either government ministers or officials to remain at home."

He expected Health Minister Claxton to join him in London next week discussing Canada's financial obligations to the United Nations' Relief and Rehabilitation Administration.

Duncan Board Seeks Option On Evans Estate For School

DUNCAN—An offer of $12,000 for 15 acres of the Evans Estate near Someno: Flats as a site for the proposed new high school with an option on the property until the matter can go before the ratepayers, will be made by the board of School District No. 65.

Trustee W. Spencer told a recent meeting that much time had been spent in negotiating for the purchase of Indian lands at Trunk and York Roads with little success in view. He urged securing the alternate site.

A report on the property in question will be made to the Department of Education by J. E. Brown, school inspector.

Tenders will be sought as soon as possible for erection of four more rooms at the Duncan Junior High School, the board agreed, following discussion during which Trustee Spencer said there was an immediate need for replacement of classrooms lost by the fire which destroyed the senior high school building.

The services of an architect had been obtained and after a review of the situation it was decided that four new classrooms, with basement rooms, could be added to the present junior high school building, Cairnsmore Street, with two rooms on the north and two on the south, Mr. Spencer said.

It was not found possible to add four rooms to any one side of the building because of lack of space, he added.

Cost of the added classrooms was estimated at approximately $32,000. This would include a new heating unit.

Insurance settlement on the destroyed senior high school building was $26,586 and in addition to this sum the board had a building fund surplus of $3,000, he stated, and added that any amount over the insurance adjustment would be shared on a 50 per cent basis by the Department of Education.

This, he thought, would provide the necessary funds for the added classrooms without having to submit a plebiscite to the ratepayers.

Former Airwoman Asks $100,000 Damages

WINNIPEG (CP)—Damages of $100,000 against two former armed forces doctors are claimed in a statement filed by Miss Grace Viney in the court of King's bench here Friday.

A former member of the Royal Canadian Air Force (Women's Division), Miss Viney claims she underwent an operation for varicose veins on July 21, 1945; that because of malpractice and negligence gangrene set in and that her right leg had to be amputated.

The dependants are Dr. Frank P. McInnes and Dr. Donald N. C. McIntyre.

Professor To Survey China's Mining Industry

VANCOUVER (CP)—Professor Frank Forward, head of the department of mining and metallurgy at the University of British Columbia, will leave July 25 by air for Formosa, where he will conduct a general survey of China's mining industry.

He will be accompanied by Dr. Peter Price, leading Canadian geologist, and will make the survey on behalf of a large eastern Canadian mining concern in conjunction with the Chinese government.

Pro. Forward was a consulting engineer with the Sumitomo Company in Japan until 1937.

Judgment Reserved On Jap Deportation

By NORMAN CRIBBENS
LONDON (CP)—Canadian and British lawyers filed out of the Oak-panelled Privy Council chamber in the House of Lords Friday after judgment had been reserved on arguments for and against the Canadian government's authority to deport Japanese.

Behind them the lawyers left tables piled high with massive leather-bound statutes and reference books used in the four-day hearing of an appeal against a Supreme Court of Canada ruling that the Canadian government has the power to deport undesirable Japanese nationals and "male adult persons of Japanese origin desiring to go to Japan."

F. A. Breen, youthful Toronto lawyer, appeared in the first 2½ days of the hearing on behalf of the Saskatchewan government and the Co-operative Committee on Japanese Canadians, which appealed the Supreme Court ruling.

Hon. Gordon Visner, Attorney-General of British Columbia, closed the case for the Attorney-General of Canada with the argument that orders-in-council authorizing deportation could be put into effect "even if certain sections (of the orders) were considered beyond the power of Canada."

Mr. Visner said that because the Canadian government considered Japanese might be disloyal to Canada in wartime, they had "deported" them from strategic coastal districts into other parts of the Dominion.

Freight Rate Threatens B.C. Lumber Market

VANCOUVER (CP)—J. Joffe, director of the Central Sawmills and Boxes and Shooks Ltd. of Port Elizabeth, South Africa, has arrived in Vancouver and is discussing lumber exports.

He said the high cost of lumber freight from British Columbia will likely result in the loss of that business when conditions return to normal.

Shipping rates on common lumber from B.C. to South Africa are $62 per thousand board feet, compared with $12 in 1939, Mr. Joffe said.

He explained this is strictly shipping rates, exclusive of insurance and war risk.

"We need lumber in South Africa and are anxious to purchase it from here," Mr. Joffe said, "and we want to continue to do business with British Columbia. However, freight rates will have to come down."

2 Saved From Drowning In English Bay

VANCOUVER (CP)—Two men were snatched from death by the efforts of a city police constable Friday when their 35-foot fishing boat filled with water and sank three miles off the north shore in English Bay.

Rescued were the owner of the boat, Ralph Birtwhistle, and a companion, Wilfred Scott.

Constable Jack Fraser, former naval lieutenant, took both men into the police boat seconds before their craft disappeared beneath the waves.

The fishing boat, from which the engine had been removed, was in tow of an inboard motor boat when the tow line snapped.

N.E.S. To Enlarge Duncan Premises

DUNCAN—Plans to enlarge the premises used by the Cowichan Library for use by the National Employment Service and the Unemployment Insurance Commission—at present occupying a section of the post office building—were approved in Duncan by William McKinstry, Vancouver, U.I.C. regional supervisor.

Sketch plans presented by G. P. MacMillan, manager of the local office, and Fred Dawson, Victoria, Dominion government resident architect, were discussed and a final draft completed.

Increased post office business makes the change necessary, it was stated, leaving the whole building for its use.

Although a definite date on which alterations will begin depends on authorization of estimates to be submitted to Ottawa by Mr. Dawson, it is felt that construction will start in a few months.

The addition will require the removal forward of the present front wall of the library by some 18 feet. The exterior will be stuccoed and extensive alterations made inside, leaving one large room in front with two private offices for the manager and the veterans' officer, and two smaller rooms at the rear.

All offices contained at present in the rear section of the post office building will be moved to the renovated building except the ration board office.

Duncan To Move Memorial Cross

DUNCAN—Final decision to move the Memorial Cross from the centre of Station Street to the city gardens recently acquired from the E. and N. Railway Co., was made at a meeting of the Duncan War Memorial committee Thursday night.

Representatives of the Duncan council, North Cowichan municipality, Canadian Legion, Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire and others, were in attendance.

An architect's plan for a suitable base upon which names of those killed in the Second Great War, may be inscribed, will be sought. This work will be proceeded with immediately.

Mrs. J. G. Hannigan, regent of the Cowichan Chapter, I.O.D.E., stated that fresh flowers had been kept at the Cross ever since it was erected and the meeting expressed appreciation of the service and asked that if possible it be continued.

Golden Anniversary Of Duncan Pioneers

DUNCAN—There was much talk of the "good old days" when 125 residents of the Duncan district gathered to honor Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Guns, Gibbins Road, who celebrated their golden anniversary, recently.

The gathering was one of the largest reunions of old-timers ever held in Cowichan, most of the guests having known their host and hostess during all of their married life.

William Dwyer, a friend, and neighbor for more than 50 years, proposed the toast to the couple.

Mr. Dwyer spoke of the days when Mount Sicker was a thriving mining town and he and Mr. Guns were employed there. He declared that the "hard-rock" miners of those days did not readily make friends, and did so only after the candidate into their circle had proved his worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Guns, he continued, had won this friendship and had held it throughout the years.

Mr. Guns came to Cowichan 56 years ago and after six years here returned to his native land, England, and claimed for his bride Miss Mary Ellen Henderson and brought her to Canada.

Four children were born to them: Edwin Guns, who was killed in World War I; Mrs. Thomas Herd, Port Alberni; Mrs. Robert Payne, Duncan; and William Guns, Duncan. They have two grandchildren, Dorothy Herd and LAC Eddie Herd, R.C.A.F.

IMPORTANT NOTICE!

To the Ratepayers of Victoria:

THE FACTS RELATING to the PROPOSED SALE of WILLOWS PARK

At a meeting of the Victoria City Council, held Thursday, July 11, an offer of the Colwood Park Racing Association Limited, to pay $86,000 for the Willows Park was unanimously accepted, subject to the assent of the Ratepayers. The City Council ordered the necessary By-law prepared and fixed Thursday, July 25, as the date on which the By-law would be submitted to the Ratepayers for their approval and also appointed the City Clerk as returning officer. As required by law, the full details of the By-law were published in the local daily papers on July 13 and 14.

On the morning of July 16 a new offer of $100,000 was received for the same property from the B.C. Turf and Country Club Limited, on exactly the same terms (except that the price offered is $14,000 higher) and complying with all the conditions as set out in the published By-law. This new offer is open for acceptance up to and including the 16th day of October, 1946.

This offer of $86,000 was made by the Colwood Park Racing Association and accepted by the City Council in good faith, and the City Council feels morally and legally bound to submit the By-law embodying an acceptance of the $86,000 offer to the Ratepayers.

This announcement is made by the Victoria City Council to apprise the Ratepayers of all the facts.

CHINA FLARES UP AGAIN

WHEN JAPAN SURRENDERED UNCONditionally nearly a year ago the world had every reason to hope and believe the Chinese would put their house in order and stop fighting among themselves. On several occasions following the removal of the external menace it has looked as if the two warring factions, recognizing their joint obligation to the Charter of the United Nations, would come to terms. Such hopes as rose from time to time were soon dispelled;
fighting between Communist and government troops continued. In recent months, General George C. Marshall, the able United States military leader who seems to be able to combine sympathetic understanding with rare diplomatic tact, has brought to bear on the rival leaders every practical argument he could command. But so far as the outside world knows, he has labored in vain.
Fighting along the Yangtze now has broken out—a development which emphasizes a serious bid for strategic advantage.

As we said in these columns a month ago, the perplexing situation in China—the vast straggling nation numbering more than 400,000,000 souls and one of the "Big Five" —automatically suggests even to the most casual observer of world events that if ever there was a case for the application of the United Nations peace-enforcing machinery, this one shrieks for immediate attention.
The problem is, of course, how to apply it.
With the example of the Soviet Union to guide him, China's delegate on the Security Council could exercise the veto, and he might seek to justify his action by telling his 10 colleagues that his country's war is purely a Chinese "dispute" or "situation" and, as such, cannot be considered aggression within the orbit of the Charter's influence.

No local or purely domestic war which involves tens of thousands of troops in armed conflict, especially if the battleground is a vast strategic area of land occupied by more than one-fifth of the earth's population, can any longer be regarded as the exclusive affair of one nation. Recent and more remote history is replete with impressive evidence that such troubles have an unhappy knack of spilling over visible or invisible frontiers. Nor is it necessary at this stage of the world's struggle for peace to elaborate on the potential external dangers inherent in a continuation of the Chinese struggle between the rival factions. When the Assembly of the United Nations meets in September, therefore, surely this war should be put under the spotlight and examined in all its ramifications.

AN HONOR TO VICTORIA

VICTORIANS, WHO HAVE JUST honored Viscount Alexander of Tunis in his dual position as Governor-General of Canada and as one of the finest strategists of the Second World War, will look forward with more than ordinary eagerness to the planned flying visit of Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery, the great field commander, tentatively scheduled for a little more than a month hence.

The happy circumstances which bring two such distinguished soldiers to this community, within so short a time lends emphasis to the recognition won by Canada, from coast to coast, for her war effort on the battlefield and on the production line.
The opportunities which Viscount Alexander has taken to compliment the people of this Dominion on their proud record, and the desire of Viscount Montgomery to visit as many parts of their country as he can in the brief time available to him furnish eloquent tribute to a job well done by Canadians. The same events, moreover, permit Victorians to show their appreciation for the excellent leadership which was so vital in the successes achieved by their men at arms.

CRUCIAL BY-ELECTION

NEXT SATURDAY IN THE NORTH
division of the London borough of Battersea the electors will go to the polls to fill the vacancy in the House of Commons caused by the appointment of the former member, Mr. F. C. R. Douglas, to be Governor of Malta. The contest will be between three candidates: Mr. B. A. Shattock, Conservative; Mr. Douglas Jay, Labor; and Mr. Hugo Dewar, L.P. Mr. Jay is 39; Mr.
Dewar, a corporal in the R.A.S.C., is 38, and Mr. Shattock, a Territorial soldier in The Queen's Royal Regiment, who served in France, Africa, India and Burma and won the D.S.O., is 34.

This is the constituency, incidentally, which Mr. S. Saklatvala won for the Communists in 1924 and held until a Socialist recaptured it in 1929, the Conservative heading the poll in the "crisis" election of 1931.
Since 1935, however, when the Socialist regained it with a majority over his Conservative opponent of more than 5000 votes, it has been regarded as a "workingman's stronghold." But particular interest attaches to the coming battle of the ballots because polling will be taking place

a few days after the introduction of bread rationing as a new "instrument of national policy"—which the Conservatives naturally believe will dominate all other issues in the mind of the electorate. Since there is a preponderance of women in a voters' list numbering no fewer than 30,000 names, and because the women have become extremely vocal against the government's food policy, the oppositionists may have good grounds for their predictions of victory. The loss of a seat after a campaign fought largely on this subject would obviously be a severe jolt for the Attlee administration.

To the ministerial candidate's appeal for support, in which Mr. Jay cites pledges which the government has "honored with speed and determination," Mr. Churchill has replied for Conservative candidate Shattock in the following terms:

"The electors should have little difficulty in deciding how to vote. They, like the rest of Britain, find themselves ill-fed, ill-clad, ill-housed, baffled and frustrated at every turn. The Social-ist's sorry performance, after their glittering election assurances, has brought nothing but disappointment and disillusion. And there's worse to come. We stand first and foremost for practical policies to secure the nation's food and fuel supplies and to get the houses built; for the progressive removal of controls; for incentive to effort and enterprise, and for the maintenance of our British way of life. By voting for you in large numbers the electors of North Battersea can warn the Government of their shortcomings and help to restore the balance of the nation."

As the odd man in the contest, the Independent Labor Party candidate is well-known locally. But if the L.P. is as weak in North Battersea as it proved to be elsewhere in the general election last year, even his promises of more beer, coal, milk, soap, plus his "condemnation of higher railway fares, dreary queues, no corsets and no prams may be insufficient to place him in the running. British history, however, is replete with evidence of how a by-election at a crucial moment in a government's life has given a swift turn to fortune's political wheel.

THE SIKHS PROTEST

AFTER HAVING ACCEPTED THE establishment of a Constituent Assembly for India, the Sikhs, whose home is in the Punjab, have now refused to support it.
The importance of their adherence to the plan for an Independent Government of India does not arise from their numbers, which are comparatively small, but on account of their traditions and the strategic position of the Punjab. They constitute a military race who guard the passes of the Northwest frontier against invasion from Afghanistan. They are classed as Hindus because they retain many essentials of the Brahmanical faith; but they are really seceders from the orthodox Hindu religion.

The word Sikh means "disciple" and the Sikhs follow the beliefs of their founder, Nanak Shah, a native of the Punjab—who abolished caste distinctions, and combined Hindus and Mohammedans in a belief in one God, the prohibition of idolatry, the use of charms, and the caste system. Being persecuted by the Mohammedans, they developed into a military organization and a refuge for fugitives from political tyranny and tax collectors. Out of these elements there has grown in the last 450 years the Sikh nation.

In the new constitution-making body the Sikhs had eight representatives out of 160.
They are classified with Indian Christians, Anglo-Indians, Europeans and others constituting jointly about 3.5 per cent of the total population.

ANOTHER REFORM DUE

IT IS GENERALLY conceded that revolutionary changes in the technical end of moving-picture-making will soon be in evidence. New film color processes and three-dimensional projection are among the more outstanding developments expected in the near future. This foretells increased enjoyment for the theatre patrons; but there is a rub. Regardless of the new perfections brought to the screen, they will be lost on any who sit behind the woman who wears a gorgeous flower garden on her head. In recognition of the efforts put forward by the moving picture engineers, it seems fitting that feminine patrons might institute a campaign for lower-built millinery for moving picture nights. A woman admittedly wears a hat to be seen, but not, surely, to obstruct the view of another customer who has paid admission to enjoy a show.

BAIT GROUND

WHEN THE SUMMER TIDE RUNS FAR out and the flats steam in the early sun, exuding odors of underwater growth and mud-sand newly bared, the young fisherman goes for his bait. Over the slippery carpet of eel-grass, left prostrate by the receding water, he walks carefully to the submarine island that lies exposed. At its base are shallow pools in which big purple starfish seem to sleep, where spiked sea urchins rest in porcupine protection, and where suckers wriggle from disturbed stones.

There is a world of its own here, a world of strange life forms that gurgle with retained water, sighing with salty exhalation, but the boy has scant time for the marine phenomena. He must dig, while the tide is out, through the layer of old barnacle and cockle shells that form a white margin where the rocks join the bay floor. Through this covering he thrusts his spade to the sulphurous-smelling blue-grey sludge beneath.
Turning the mud he reaches quickly and ex-pactly for a beach-worm burrowing toward safety. It stretches as he pulls until its elastic length comes free. Deftly he drops it into his can, wary of the sharp pinners which guard its head. In the container, a narescent sheen gleams the length of its dull-green, segmented body. This, among all the other wonders, is the object of his quest.

Jew And Arab

By SIR REGINALD COPLAND
In The Times of London

(Editor's note—The author of the following article, a member of the Palestine Royal Commission, 1936-37—the Peel Commission—reviewing current conditions in Palestine, sets forth again the case for partition as a means of developing a basis for self-government and final settlement of the Arab-Jewish issue.)

IT IS TRUE that the Jews enter Palestine
"as of right and not on sufferance." Non-theless the Arabs regard their entry, sustained as it is from time to time by force in the teeth of their resistance, as in the nature of an invasion, and the process by which they gradually rise to a majority in the country as a sort of creeping conquest.

The Anglo-American Report seeks to reassure the Arabs. It calls for a "clear statement" of the principles that "Jew shall not dominate Arab and Arab shall not dominate Jew" and that "Palestine shall be neither a Jewish state nor an Arab state"; and it proposes that these principles should be given effect in a constitution which is not based on the rule of a numerical majority. But it is not a mistake to regard "domination" as only a matter of numbers? One educated, forcible, westernized Jew is more than a match for one ignorant, old-fashioned Arab peasant; and Arab nationalists, less extremist than the Mufti, would have agreed with him when he told the Peel Commission that "Palestine could not digest the number of Jews already there. Long, indeed, before the Jews were actually more numerous the Arabs would feel—and in fact would be—dominated whatever the constitutional balance might be.
Meantime both Arabs and Jews would be subjected to "a long period of trusteeship" while Arab standards of life were gradually being levelled up to Jewish.

TO EDUCATED ARABS, living next door to independent Arab States, such a lengthy tutelage would be galling enough.
To the Jews it would be well-nigh intolerable, and for them, more perhaps than for the Arabs, the continued lack of responsibility for the decisions which most vitally affect the welfare of their homeland would be morally distasteful. "We cannot help regarding it," said the Peel Commission, "as a regrettable weakness in the life of the National Home that its young community should be growing up in an atmosphere of irresponsibility with regard to the gravest issues that confront it." Recent events have justified that note of anxiety. Is not self-government the first step towards sanity and self-restraint in Palestinian politics?

The trusteeship is to last till Arab-Jewish antagonism has disappeared and the independence of a harmonious binational state has thereby been made possible. But is such a happy outcome probable? The Peel Commission were convinced that it was not. . .
IN THE LIGHT of some such considerations as the foregoing, public opinion seems inclined to look again at the unanimous recommendations of the Peel Commission, and it may be worth while to restate the advantages which in the Commission's opinion partition offered to the Arabs and the Jews in 1937; for it offers the same advantages now, and they have gained in weight from what has happened in the interval. To the Arabs it offers the surest guarantee that can be given against the "creeping conquest" of all Palestine. Numerical limitation on the growth of the National Home can never be so sure. . .
Territorial limitation is at once more humane and stable and effective. If the sanctity of the frontier were guaranteed at least by the British Commonwealth and the United States, if not by all the United Nations, it is impossible to suppose that the Jewish State, vulnerable as it is to air and sea power, would be so mad as to violate it and to seek to occupy Arab land beyond it.
An open act of aggressive war, it could only lead to the swift destruction of the National Home. And together with security partition offers to the great majority of the Palestinian Arabs the same independence that all their Arab neighbors now enjoy.
What does it offer the Jews? A chance to call their Home their own and make it what they will, to open its doors to all who can find a living in it, to do their best to prove to the world that Zionism is not, as its enemies aver, a calamitous dream but the practical, saving idea which Balfour and Milner believed it to be, and thus to obtain perhaps some little moral compensation for the appalling sufferings of their race.

"IN OUR VIEW," says the Anglo-American Report, "no partition would have any chance unless it was basically acceptable to Jews and Arabs, and there is no sign of that today." Is that so certain? Can we be sure that most of the Jewish and Arab leaders, once they realize that all Palestine cannot be either a Jewish or Arab state, would not acquiesce in its division into two?
That does not mean, of course, that it should be carried out at once. The Peel Commission contemplated a short interim period before the two States assumed their sovereign statehood; and in the unstable condition of the world today it would seem wise to lengthen that period to 10 or even 20 years.

In the meantime the States should enjoy full power over all their domestic affairs, over all the means of building up their national life, including, of course, the vital right to take immigrants in or keep them out. The two States, in fact, would be States in the sense that Illinois and New South Wales are States, but with wider powers. . .

SUCH AN INTERIM regime would serve as a training in responsibility, and it might possibly relieve inter-racial tension if only by demonstrating the inviolability of the frontier. . .

Renewal of fighting between the Chinese Communists and Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist forces along the strategic Yangtze River impelled this column yesterday to call attention to the danger that the bloody political dispute might have to be settled on the battlefield in a protracted civil war.

United States attempts to reconcile the warring factions will continue, but the United States is dealing with two political "isms" which thus far have been irreconcilable. Another difficulty is the general backwardness and economic straits of this vast country of 500,000,000.

General Ho Ying-chin, the Generalissimo's top military expert who now is in the United States, defends his country's slowness in becoming progressive by citing that it was only as far back as 1910 that "China threw off the yoke of 5,000 years of Manchu despotism."

Itself is a mighty chasm, to bridge. As the result of the protracted war against the invading Japanese the economic position is terribly bad. Inflation has been running riot for years until one wonders how even the rich can find the cash to maintain themselves. The prices of bare necessities are fantastic.

A mountainous complication is added by the fact that famine is sweeping many parts of the country. This is due to failure of crops, lack of seed and inability to secure sufficient imports. Millions of people are starving and untold numbers already are dead from hunger.
Whole villages are threatened with extermination. The position is so desperate in many areas that the people have been reduced to banditry and murder to secure food or the money with which to purchase it.

There you have the altogether grim setting for the fight between Chinese Communists and the Nationalist government.

$1,400 In Stamps On Chinese Letter

Prices are high these days, but the $1,400 worth of stamps affixed to a letter from a Shanghai firm to the British Pacific Importing and Exporting Co. Ltd., here, seems to be stretching a point.

However, the letter comes from inflation-ridden China and, in Canadian money, the stamps represent approximately 70 cents. There were four stamps on the letter marked $300 and one marked $200.

Naval Staff Chief To Pay Brief Visit To Victoria July 24

Vice-Admiral H. E. Reid, C.B., R.C.N., Chief of Naval Staff, will arrive in Victoria July 24 to pay an informal visit to the local reserve division, H.M.C.S. Malahat, commanded by Lt.-Comdr. W. W. Gage, R.C.N.

Vice-Admiral Reid will not undertake any official inspection of Malahat, but merely plans to see the existing training facilities and generally acquaint himself with the division. The admiral's flag will not be flown at any time during his stay, and he will be making no public speeches.

The chief of staff, who has served in warships of many different types, was Vice-Chief of Naval Staff at Ottawa and Canadian naval member of the Canada-U.S. Joint Board of Defence in the earlier part of the war, and was flag officer, Newfoundland Force, during the height of the Battle of the Atlantic. At the time of his appointment on Feb. 28, 1946, as Chief of Naval Staff, he was naval member of the combined staff at Washington.

In the New Year's Honors List of Jan. 1, 1944, the King appointed Vice-Admiral Reid to be a Companion of the Order of the Bath for his work during the war.

Lady Alexander, wife of the Governor-General, visited the Children's Garden Library on Tattersall Drive Friday morning. She was accompanied by her three children, Shane, Brian and Rose, and the children's little friend, Henrietta Scott, and was attended by Miss Bridget Vesey. Lady Alexander described the visit as a great treat and spoke of similar projects in Great Britain, which she said, "unfortunately have to be held indoors, because our weather is not always as bright as this."

Mrs. W. W. McGill, organizer and supervisor of the Garden Library, greeted the viceregal party, which was escorted to the centre of the lawn where Cubs broke out the flag for the singing of God Save the King. The significance of the project was explained by Mrs. McGill, who also made the presentation of a "living bouquet" to Lady Alexander. The "living bouquet" was composed of little girls, costumed as carnations, violets and sweet peas, all tied around with huge ribbons in colonial style.

Quiet Ceremony At St. Mary's Today

The marriage was quietly solemnized this afternoon at 2 in the vestry of St. Mary's Church, uniting Barbara, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Horsford, 1536 Foul Bay Road, and SPO. Hugh Robert Lockhart, R.C.N., eldest son of Mrs. R. T. Cowan, Churchbridge, Sask., and the late Robert E. Lockhart, Archdeacon A. E. de L. Nunns read the service. Given away by her father, the bride wore an afternoon frock of heavenly blue crepe, fashioned with shirred neckline and cap sleeves and diagonal self-trim at the waistline. Her white gloves were elbow-length and her model hat was of orchid and rose shaded flowers. The bridal bouquet was of colonial arrangement of pink rosebuds, scabiosa and swainswortia. A single strand of pearls was the bride's only jewelry.

Mrs. G. H. Stevenson attended her sister as matron of honor, wearing a coral crepe afternoon frock with peplum and dolman sleeves. Her model hat of black straw was trimmed with orchid flowers and she carried an arm bouquet of purple and white gladioli. Stoker, P.O. W. Raynor, R.C.N., was groomsmen.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where mothers of the bride and couple received the guests. The toast to the bride was proposed by D. Donaldson, an old friend of the family. A three-tier wedding cake centred the bride's table, flanked by white tapers and silver vases of pastel sweet peas.

Following a honeymoon in Seattle and Vancouver, SPO, and Mrs. Lockhart will reside in Victoria. Going away, the bride wore a dressmaker suit of powder blue with matching topcoat, small brown hat, brown accessories and corsage bouquet of gardenias and violets.

Engagements

The announcement is made of the engagement of Ora Anne, younger daughter of Mrs. D. H. Kremer of Calgary, Alta., and the late Mr. D. H. Kremer, to Mr. Allan E. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Jones, 354 Foul Bay Road, Victoria, B.C. The wedding will take place in Calgary during the latter part of August.

Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald of 2538 Ross Street, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Irene Marjorie to Sydney Ash, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ash of 243 Maddock Street. The wedding will take place at 7.15 at the First United Church on Aug. 17.

First Lady Visits I.O.D.E.

Lady Alexander is pictured second from right with Mrs. A. H. C. Phipps on her left and Mrs. W. C. Nichol on the right. Miss Bridget Vesey is on the left of the picture.

Many members of the Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, gathered in the lower lounge of the Empress Hotel Friday afternoon at a reception held to honor Lady Alexander, wife of the Governor-General of Canada.

Lady Alexander was met by Mrs. W. C. Nichol, first vice-regent of Municipal Chapter, I.O.D.E., and Mrs. C. H. Cross, secretary, and escorted to the lower lounge where she was received by Mrs. A. H. C. Phipps, Municipal regent.

Preceded by the standard of Municipal Chapter, carried by Mrs. W. A. Midprize, the party walked to the front of the lounge through an aisle formed by flags carried by the standard-bearers of primary chapters. Her Excellency was introduced to the members by Mrs. Phipps and was presented with colonial bouquets of red, white and blue flowers tied with the same colored ribbons.

Expressing her pleasure at visiting Vancouver Island, Lady Alexander said she had been particularly interested in meeting various members of the I.O.D.E. across Canada, and spoke of the many times she had opened parcels that had been sent to England by the I.O.D.E.

Members of the Municipal Chapter entertained Her Excellency later at tea, Mrs. Nichol and Mrs. C. L. Bishop, second vice-regent, presiding.

New Treatment Holds Bright Hope For Palsied Children

SYDNEY, Australia (CP)—Fair-haired, attractive Mrs. Neil McLeod of Perth in Western Australia, is the founder and guiding hand behind Australia's only spastic centre in Sydney which holds out new hope of life to thousands of cerebral palsied children.

Cerebral palsy is a physical defect in the brain, which impairs the use of limbs, and may impair sight, speech and hearing. It cannot be cured, but often many of its victims can be taught to use their limbs, speak, read and write.

Mrs. McLeod's centre gives this treatment. But before it came into existence, there was little provision for such afflicted children. Many of them were simply diagnosed mental defectives, and put into mental homes. The way the centre began reads like a fairy story. Mrs. McLeod came to Sydney three years ago with her baby daughter Jennifer on her way to the United States to seek special treatment for the baby. In Western Australia she had been told Jennifer was a mental defective.

MUSIC A STIMULANT
In Sydney she noticed one day that Jennifer was stimulated by a children's broadcast. The child became excited, listened intently to the music, and tried to join in the songs.

Mrs. McLeod wrote to the newspapers about it and many parents of cerebral palsied children wrote to her. She called a meeting of parents who decided to start a centre where cerebral palsied children could be treated. They had no money, no accommodation and no equipment. However, money was subscribed by the parents and public, and an interested businessman gave them the use of a two-storey suburban private home for a rental of 10 cents a year.

The centre opened in 1945, and today has 58 patients. Staff includes a doctor, physiotherapist, occupational therapists. Parents of the patients help voluntarily.

Forty of the child patients attend school at the centre where they are slowly being taught to read and write. Mrs. McLeod says that it will take from 10 to 15 years to rehabilitate them. Only two, she adds, have not shown development.

Miss Toronto 1946 In New Contest

TORONTO (CP)—Just like any other man, Ferdinand Beulah claims to be an expert on feminine beauty and he said in an interview today that when Miss Toronto 1946 takes her bow tomorrow at the 10th police games beauty contest it's a safe bet she'll be all set to handle whatever comes her way in bigger competitive fields.

In fact he has predicted she is bound to be chosen Miss Canada 1947.

To prove his point, Mr. Beulah recalled that Marion Saver, Miss Toronto 1946, walked off with the Miss Canada title three weeks ago in Hamilton, Ont., defeating such keen competitors as Jeanine Quesnel, Miss Montreal, and Lillian Cardwell, Miss Regina.

"Which just goes to prove there's something about these Toronto girls," Beulah added, "not that the girls in Vancouver haven't got those peaches and cream complexions. And of course on the prairies they've all kinds of beautiful curves—I mean figures."

What Ferdie really meant was that he figured the Toronto girls had a little more of everything. From the 500 entries, 200 more than last year, 35 semifinalists are all set to slip into their bathing suits tomorrow and vie for first place which means $500 in cash, a screen test, a diamond-studded watch, and who knows what other expensive gifts.

The judges will be headed by Vincent Trotta, dean of the judges for the Miss America Beauty Pageant at Atlantic City.

Patrol Asked To Curb Park Drinking, Gambling
VANCOUVER (CP)—Kitsilano Ratepayers' Association has requested police to patrol Kitsilano Park regularly to control noisy drinking and gambling claims which the association claims occur there.

Park Board Superintendent P. B. Stroyan said his department was constantly receiving complaints from residents of that area who say that wide-open gambling, sometimes involving more than 30 persons, is conducted in the park.

Police officials reported that a special constable patrols beaches and parks in that area from 1 p.m. until 9 p.m. during the summer, and that regular radio patrol cars take over after that.

Magistrate Mackenzie Matheson said patrolling the park constantly would be a big proposition.

FOOLS NEVER LEARN

Wise old Benjamin Franklin said: "Experience keeps a dear school, but fools will learn in no other." Far be it from me to argue with that immortal sage, but my observation is that fools never learn from experience, and that even people with a high I.Q. rating seldom profit from their blunders. They can read the danger signals that life erects along their pathway, but they refuse to heed the warning and stumble in the same old pit, time and time again.

As an example of our inability to learn from experience, take our health. That is the most important thing in the world for us, for on it depends our ability to succeed, our usefulness and our happiness. If we are weak and feeble and racked with pain, nothing else matters.

Yet while all of us know from experience the things that will not only make us ill, but shorten our lives, we keep on doing them. We know that if we gorge ourselves on rich food, it is going to give us dyspepsia; if we worry too much, we will get stomach ulcers; if we overwork and overplay, we are going to break ourselves down. We know, in a word, if we don't take care of our physical machine, it is going to pieces like the one-horse shay. Yet we keep on pushing it until it collapses.

Then think how little people seem to learn from experience about how to handle money. The suckers are suckers from the cradle to the grave. No matter how many times they are cheated, they can still be sold blue sky by any glib talker. And the men and women who have holes in their pockets never sew them up.

I had a friend who was alternately rich and poor. She inherited three different fortunes and spent them. Each time I would think that her experience would have taught her to take care of her money, but it didn't. And she died without a cent.

BLIND TO FAULTS

And marriage. Doesn't it seem that a man and woman who had a bitterly unhappy matrimonial experience would hesitate to try it again and would, at least, look over the new prospect with a wary eye? Yet women who have had husbands who bent them and starved and were unfaithful to them, and men who have been cursed with wives who were viragoes and naggers, who made their lives a torment to them, can hardly wait to get their divorces to get married again. Nor do they use any more discretion in picking out their Number Twos than they did their Number Ones.

Then the daily spats that wreck so many homes. The inability of so many husbands and wives to get along harmoniously is the direct result of their never learning—anything—from experience. No man and woman can live together in wedlock for even a month, to say nothing of years, without knowing every quirk of the other's disposition and character. And if they had not been too dumb to learn, experience would have taught them how to keep off of each other's sore points.

"Experience keeps a dear school," said the wise Mr. Franklin. Since we have to pay such a high price for our education; what a pity that we don't learn from our mistakes.

The delegates to the provincial convention Mrs. Malcolm reported on the convention held in Vancouver, with Mrs. Kathryn Bowen, state field director; Washington, guest of honor; Mrs. Agnes Johnston, Review No. 7, Vancouver, was elected delegate to the supreme convention in Florida in October. The next sewing meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. H. White, 2535 Scott Street, on July 28 with Mrs. M. Smith and Mrs. S. McNeil assisting the hostess. After the business meeting a card party was held.

Outdoor Concerts In Montreal Draw Big Attendance

MONTREAL (CP)—Concert promoters in Montreal have yet to gauge the limit of public support for music by starlight, a regular feature of summer life. In this city for 10 years and more popular this season than ever before.

In fact, officials of the two academic and two commercial organizations sponsoring outdoor summer concerts appear to be equally convinced they have struck on a solid means of investing in Montreal's future as a musically-alert city.

They explain that open-air summer productions are "stuff for the people" because they can be offered at popular prices, drawing vast audiences into ever greater familiarity with music of the masters. Most seats sell for 50 cents to $1.

The turnout for such concerts averages 10 times the attendance at winter concerts offering similar entertainment. Tickets for winter concerts are more expensive, particularly when visiting artists are featured, because audiences must be cut to fit the concert hall.

Winter concerts attract average attendances of less than 1,500 in summer, audiences at outdoor productions seldom total below 10,000, and usually are closer to 15,000, not including cavedroppers beyond the fences or under the bleachers.

Oldest regular summer concert series is that of Les Concerts Symphoniques de Montreal, now in its ninth season of weekly summer concerts at the Chateau, high on the southern slopes of Mount Royal, described by many visiting conductors as second only to the Hollywood Bowl as a setting for outdoor music.

Paget-Gyves Nuptials Held at First United

The First United Church was the scene of the marriage ceremony on the evening of July 11, which united Mary Phyllis, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gyves of Salt Spring Island, and Roger Garfield, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Paget of Vancouver. Dr. Hugh A. McLeod officiated.

For her marriage the bride chose a dressmaker suit of turquoise blue with white accessories. A corsage bouquet of pink roses completed her ensemble.

Given away by her father, the bride was attended by her younger sister, Deena, wearing a moss green ensemble and corsage bouquet of pink carnations, and by Miss June Seymour, who wore a fuchsia suit and corsage bouquet of white carnations. The groom was supported by Kenneth Robinson. Maurice Thomas was the soloist.

A reception was held prior to the couple's departure for the mainland. Robert Thomas proposed the toast. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Paget will reside at 1243 Rudlin Avenue.

Centenarian Dislikes Trading Husbands

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—Mrs. Kathryn M. Luce, who celebrates her 100th birthday tomorrow, says "what I dislike most is seeing all those young whippersnappers going about trading husbands and wives as if they were selecting clothes."

"Instead of being given divorces most of them should be put in jail," she said in an interview.

Declaring success in marriage and in all phases of life "is something you must work hard for," Mrs. Luce added:

"That's the trouble with modern life, people try to live with the same ease which they get from all their automatic gadgets. What's needed is more hard work, more thrift and more decent Christian living."

"I don't know how people are going to get that way, though. Clergymen certainly are not being much help. All they are doing is looking out for themselves."

Mrs. Luce confided she has had "enough of living," and said her only regret was that she must "leave the world in such a awful mess."

Return From Camp

Forty-five St. John Cadets returned this week, brown and happy from their annual 10-day holiday at Sunshine Camp, Saanich. The well-organized camp was in charge of Mrs. M. F. Sampson, cadet superintendent, assisted by Misses Nonne Challen, Shirley Magath and Marcelene Darnell. Miss Barbara Bell was lifeguard. The summer weather brought many visitors over the week-end, and parents joined the children in swimming and general outdoor activities.

No Threat On Island By Potato Blight Yet

Potato blight, reported to be threatening complete destruction of 1,500 acres in the Delta area of the Fraser Valley, has not caused much damage to Vancouver Island potato crops, so far as the provincial agriculture department has discovered.

Blight in potatoes is common in many parts of the province but worst in the Fraser Valley. Present hot dry weather is cutting down the danger of potato blight here.

60 Boys Leave For Y.M.C.A. Camp

Sixty under-teenage boys left by bus Friday to spend 10 days at the Victoria Y.M.C.A.'s Camp Thunderbird at Glens Lake, in the Sooke Hills.

In addition to three adult camp directors, a number of older boys are attending to act as leaders and counselors, and a mixed contingent of nine members of the Flying "Y" Swimming Club led by coach Archie McKinnon.

The swimmers are Ina Salmon, Joan Morgan, Aileen Smyth, Peter Salmon, Eric Jubb, Jack Creedon, Jack Morgan, Dick Bowden and Lorne Bowden. Most of this group recently completed their tests to receive Red Cross water-safety senior badges.

During their visit they will conduct two beginners' classes in swimming each day. The experienced swimming party will also prepare themselves for the Kelowna regatta on Aug. 7 and 8, to which the Victoria "Y" club will send a mixed team of 16 of its best swimmers.

The first camping period lasts until July 29. A second period, for boys aged 13 to 17 years, will be held from July 31 to Aug. 9.

Want Transfer Of Superannuation

Mayor Percy George has been asked to meet with Vancouver representatives by the welfare committee to draft a resolution for presentation to the Union of B.C. Municipalities convention in September, which would propose a scheme under which welfare employees could be transferred from provincial to municipal employ.

Ald. Margaret D. Christie, chairman of the committee, explained after a meeting Friday that some scheme whereby superannuation benefits may be transferred with the employee from one service to the other will have to be set up.

At the meeting also the question of establishing emergency housing units at Macaulay Point Camp turned over to the housing committee which is under the chairmanship of Ald. R.A.C. Dewar.

Good Fishing Reports On Eve Of Big Derby

As final arrangements were being made for tomorrow's membership salmon derby in Saanich Inlet, officials of the Victoria-Saanich Inlet Anglers' Association came up with the news that the take for the Solarium derby has a final reading of $1,362.

But the association is by no means finished with working for the crippled children's institution. President Harry Woolston has a plan lined up for tomorrow afternoon's prize-giving ceremony at the Brentwood Anchorage after 4.

This added feature involves the planer and lure whirling through the water without rod attachment recently which prompted Louis Lattange, Bamberston, fishing off the pier to plunge in after it and discover a 42-pound spring salmon giving the gear its power.

Lattange handed the fish and gear over to the kitchen staff at the cement works. Staff member Albert Wright forwarded the tackle to Woolston with the request it be employed to aid the Solarium.

The rowboat and radio consolation prize winners of the Solarium derby will be decided at the presentation of prizes following tomorrow's competition—rated as the best state of prizes in several years.

LOTS OF FISH—MOSTLY SMALL

All reports from the Saanich fishing grounds today spoke of "lots of fish." During the week there were not very many heavy salmon taken, but lots of small ones. A healthy run of grise has arrived. Coho are more in evidence.

Big fish are still being taken angling deep. Lucky Louie plugs appearing to be best lure, with Wonder spoons running a close second. Grise, majority of which appear to be in the waters from Bamberston up to the Mill Bay ferry slip—although some have been taken in other parts of the arm—are taking best on spinner and worm. Also favored are the small F.S.T. spoons. Weights used for them range from a few ounces to 10, and length of line from 60 to 150 feet.

REELS IN 34-POUNDER

Harry Spedding gets the week's bouquet for reeling in the heaviest. It weighed 34 pounds on the Anchorage scales, was caught Tuesday evening. He was tumbled about particulars regarding the catch. I. Erb weighed in another heavy this week, 16 pounds.

There were some fair quantity catches during the week, from Wednesday on. Among the best was the haul taken by Fred Acres and party, D. Kerracher and Joyce Leithe. Catch aggregated 12 fish, six salmon with the biggest 18 pounds, reports Harry Gilbert. Other recordings include: Jack Morgan, 12, 10 and 8; holidayers Cal McAllister and Otto Elfa, seven salmon, ranging 16 to 10; Ken Dicks, 25 (his 13th button fish this year); Bob Redgrave, 15, 10 and 12; Bob Pierce, 19½; Paul Wells, a Belgian, 29½, 19½, 12; Tom Dunlap, 30 (and he got a 37-pounder last week).

Art Hall reports Don McLean in the spotlight again. He was out last Sunday with Mrs. McLean and they scored 24½ and 15-pounders. Out again with his friend Huggard Wednesday McLean's boat total was eight salmon, largest going 27 pounds. Other catches registered were: W. Watson, 20½; George Hall and Bob Rowan, 20½, 18, 13 and two smaller; Bill McPherson, 19½, 15½; Roy Robinson, 25. Hall reports most of them caught during the area of the Goldstream Inlet.

Creed was out during the week with several parties, got fish every time. Heaviest of all was a 25-pounder. He reports the party of Woolston, Dick Lipsey and Gordon Bowers, Vancouver, caught six salmon Wednesday afternoon and evening. They ranged around 10 and eight pounds.

A party made up of Alex McIlwaine and his visiting brother-in-law and wife from High River, Alberta, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McIlwaine, Wednesday reeled in 25 grise and one coho. They were fishing off the ferry slip out Mill Bay way, using pop-gear, spinner and worm, 60 to 70 feet of line and one ounce of weight.

Fishing 800 yards off Willows Beach H. S. Halton, 2558 Beach Drive, caught a 35-pound spring salmon. It was taken in the evening on a Lucky Louie plug using 70 feet of line.

Harrison, Stranahan Pace Chicago Golf

CHICAGO (AP)—Professional E. J. (Dutch) Harrison of Little Rock, Ark., long absent from the winner's circle, and the current amateur sensation, handsome Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio, deadlocked with three-under-par 68's for the 18-hole lead Friday in the $10,000 Chicago victory national golf tournament.

Stranahan, winner of the Kansas City Invitational last week-end, was the most consistent performer in a 72-player field which started over Medina Country Club, exacting par 71, 6,800-yard course with a pair of 34's.

Harrison, whose last major victory was the St. Paul open last year, opened a par-matching 36 and then zoomed over the final nine in 32, three under standard.

MANGRUM HAS 69—One stroke off the pace with 69's were U.S. open champion Lloyd Mangrum, ex-baseballer Sammy Byrd and swinging Chick Harbert, a trio of professionals who all fizzled the tricky 18th hole for one-over-par fives.

Defending champion Byron Nelson could do no better than a 36-37-73, two over par, for a flitting far down the standings. Ben Hogan, leading money winner and co-favored with Nelson, was bracketed with eight players at 75 as he needed a 37 and 36.

DIVULGE WINNER
EDMONTON (CP)—Divulge, owned by the A. G. Tarn Stables of San Ysidro, Calif., Friday won the $600 Mother Lode Handicap, feature race on the fifth day card at the Edmonton exhibition meet.

The five-year-old mare by Broome out of Blow-Torch, with Jockey Earl Sylvia up, found his footing at the halfway mark of the seven furlong event to catch the pace-setting Patolan in the backstretch to win handily.

150 Entries For Canadian Tennis Play Opening Monday

OTTAWA (CP)—High point in the tennis season, the Canadian tennis championships open here Monday with 150 Canadian and United States stars clashing at the Rideau-Lawn Tennis Club for the first national titles to be awarded since 1940.

Due to the heavy entry, all 150 Rideau Club courts and nine of the adjacent Tel-Aviv Club will be used for eliminations in the early rounds.

Some 80 racket wielders will battle for the men's singles title, headed by Don McDiarmid of Ottawa, Canadian champion of 1940, and Morey Lewis, ranking California player, who won the title in 1939.

Montreal is represented by a strong contingent, including two members of Canada's ill-fated

Athletics Pull 4 Double Plays But Beaten, 6-4

Although they cut down four potential rallies with lightning fast double plays, Victoria Athletics were beaten 6 to 4 by Tacoma last night in their West ern International League ball game. The Tigers won the game with a four-run rally in the sixth inning after the A's had built up a 4 to 1 lead.

Johnny Carpenter was the losing pitcher. Stan Gray, infielder, made his first appearance with the A's, holding down second base and participating in three of the double killings.

Third-place Bremerton chopped a full game off its disadvantage last night—with the help of Spokane—and roosts today in third place just a full game back of Salem and half a tilt behind Wenatchee.

John Pintar set the league leaders down with four hits in leading Bremerton to its 5 to 0 win over Salem. At the same time Spokane was taking advantage of six enemy errors at Wenatchee to trounce the second-place team 8 to 5.

At Yakima, lefty Al Yaxilan pitched the hometowners to a 7 to 0 shutout victory over Vancouver, with Yakima getting all its runs on six hits and three Vancouver errors.

Toronto Dog Best In Vancouver Show

VANCOUVER (CP)—A Toronto dog, Mrs. F. Yeigh McEachern's Kerry Blue terrier, Kenmare Masterpiece, bested a field of 430 to be named the best dog in the British Columbia Kennel Club's first show here last night.

A city entry, C. W. Kelley's "Coburn" Pointer, Roxanna's Emperor V. Reemon, placed above Croxio Gladstone Shadow, owned by A. E. Lacroix of Spokane, Wash., to place second.

Barbara Ann Scott Named Canada's Outstanding Athlete

TORONTO (CP)—Pretty Barbara Ann Scott of Ottawa today added to her well-known figure skating laurels the Lou E. Marsh Memorial Trophy awarded as Canada's outstanding sports competitor of 1945 and became the first of her sex to win the trophy which perpetuates the memory of the former sports editor of the Toronto Star.

The unanimous award to the winsome 16-year-old miss, who holds the North American figure skating title and is eagerly awaiting an opportunity to demonstrate her skill at the 1948 Olympic Games, was announced today by Miss Alexandra Gibb of the Star, the non-voting secretary to the five-man board of judges.

The Ottawa girl takes a place with some of the nation's best-known men athletes. The last winner was Theo Dubois, the Winnipeg sculler, who was awarded the trophy for 1941. In 1942-44 there was no civilian award but in those years the trophy was "awarded to perpetuate the memory of all Canadian athletes who made the supreme sacrifice" in the war.

Zuber Find For Sox

Bill Zuber, a luckless pitcher who couldn't get anybody out for the Yankees, is proving to be a $7,500 bargain find for the pennant-bound Boston Red Sox.

Picked up for the nominal waiver fee when New York cut him loose, the 31-year-oldster has earned three straight decisions for his benefactors and hasn't been beaten yet. Yesterday he added a four-hit, 9 to 2 decision over Chicago to his impressive record.

Even in victory, Zuber had to play second fiddle to Ted Williams yesterday, when umpire Red Jones ejected 14 White Sox players and coaches after he had warned pitcher Joe Haynes about "dusting" Williams.

The Pale Horse resented the charge that Haynes was "throwing at" thumping Teddy. A yammering from the bench resulted in Jones thumbing out Ralph Hodgins, Darlo Lodigiani, Ed Smith and Bing Miller. When the riding persisted, Jones cleaned out the dugout, shooting 10 more players and leaving only manager Ted Lyons, coach Mule Haas and a skeleton bullpen brigade.

With the Yankees and St. Louis Browns unscheduled, the Red Sox upped their lead over second place New York to 11½ games.

Circuit smashes by Henry Harris, with the bags loaded, and Gus Hilton highlighted last night's senior A men's 12 to 2 fastball victory scored by Ciros over Canadian Legion, cellar occupants. It was Ciros' 15th win in 17 games.

Ken Gunter, on the mound for the restaurant crew, was in fine hurling form. Going the whole route he only allowed Wally Smith's veterans a pair of safe hits, while Ciros gathered 13 from Ted Minnis.

Ciros' two big innings were the third and fourth when they bagged five and four runs, respectively. They added two in the sixth and one in the ninth. Legion got their brace of runs in the sixth. Two men walked and they came home on the only Ciros error of the game. Legion was chalked for three boots.

By beating Sidney 17 to 7 Hudson's Bay girls bolstered their hold on first place in the women's B-A division. The game's heavy stickier was Wally's Mickey Patterson. A woman's B-B tilt saw Hepcats score a 4 to 0 shutout over New Method Laundry. Chinese Students came through with a 13 to 9 verdict over Oak Bay Wanderers in a men's senior B-B fixture.

Legion Captures Lacrosse Battle To Take Top Place

Canadian Legion gutted stick-warriors, coached and managed by Art McKim, vaulted into sole leadership of the Victoria Box Lacrosse Association standings Friday night when they clattered out of a hard-fought struggle with the Foul Bay Septette with a 14 to 8 decision.

Jokers are riding the second berth with four points, two less than Legion's count. Foul Bayers and Tillikums are company in the third position with a win apiece and Navy brings up the rear with a winless record. Foul Bay will seek to join Jokers in the second berth Tuesday night when they clash with the sailors. Game starts at 6.45.

Playing-coach Keith Ludbrook's Foul Bay unit put up a good fight in the first half, but slowed down in the second largely due to the fact they only had four substitutes compared to Legion's two complete line-ups.

LEEMING STOPS MANY

The webbed-stick fight was featured by the splendid defence of the net put up by John Leeming. An illustration of his fine work is depicted in the fact that of 51 shots fired at him by Legion men he stopped better than two of every three. Buzz Long, in the Legion net, did not have nearly as much fire power to deal with. Eight of 21 shots got by him.

Things remained fairly even on the scoreboard in the opening half, but three rapid-fire tallies minutes before the breather whistle, two by Ralph Baker and one by veteran Tom McEachie, gave Legion a 6 to 4 lead.

From this point on Legion stayed out in front, adding to their margin as they went, boasting in two goals to Foul Bay's one.

PARKS BOARD TO HELP

The heavy action in the dirt-floored box resulted in a continuous dustiness in the air and it was learned from league officials Doug Fletcher, Ed Popham and Fred Harding that the city Parks board had promised to employ a material to eliminate the dust as soon as a supply is available.

Schedule of games up to Aug. 20 follows:

July 22—Jokers vs. Tillikums
July 27—Legion vs. Navy
July 30—Legion vs. Tillikums
August 1—Foul Bay vs. Jokers
August 2—Navy vs. Tillikums
August 4—Legion vs. Jokers
August 5—Foul Bay vs. Tillikums
August 6—Foul Bay vs. Navy
August 12—Jokers vs. Tillikums
August 13—Foul Bay vs. Legion
August 16—Legion vs. Navy
August 20—Foul Bay vs. Jokers

Ranking Stars Here For B.C. Tennis Play

Forty-ninth British Columbia championships return to the courts of the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club July 29 to August 3 after a lapse of seven years, and should prove to be one of the most successful in the history of the event.

Both players and the tennis-loving public are what might be called tournament hungry, after going so long without any major competitions in the Pacific Northwest.

Gerry Clute, Victoria Club manager, spent Monday and Tuesday in Seattle, attending the annual meeting of the Pacific Northwest Tennis Association and the opening of the Washington State championships at the Seattle Club. The entry for this event is one of the largest in the history of this tournament, and Clute was assured of a large and representative entry of California and Pacific Northwest players.

Entries from Portland will include Sam Lee, former Oregon State champion, Emory Neale, present P.N.W. sectional title holder, and Claude Hockley, well known Irvington Club player.

From California, Harry Buttimer, George Chichester and George Gentry head the senior list, with several of the leading Juniors will come here for further "grass court" experience.

WOMEN STARS COMING

Betty Ravenscroft, South California's leading player who has won the majority of the Pacific Coast tournaments to date, will definitely play here, together with her doubles partner, Mrs. Muriel Kiefer. Seattle will be represented by several leading players including Mel Dranga, who has visited Victoria on many occasions.

Vancouver is expected to have one of the largest entries in many years and such well known players as Phil Pearson, former representative on the Canadian Davis Cup star, Jim Skelton and Walt Stohberg, this year's representative of the Victoria Davis Cup squad. These and several other top ranking players, including Victoria's city Champion Henry Bennett, Carl Brand and Eric McCallum should give the visitors a real battle for the silverware.

Five Stars For Cup Tennis Team

NEW YORK (AP)—Walter Pate, captain of the American Davis Cup tennis team, said today he was "delighted" that Sweden won the European zone final from Yugoslavia Wednesday and would meet the United States in the inter-zone final at Forest Hills Aug. 16 to 18.

"That was what we were hoping for," he said. "The Swedes already had promised to play us here if they won, but Yugoslavia had not. There might have been some bickering about where we would have played. This straightens everything out fine."

Pate said the four-man American squad for the match with Sweden would have to be chosen by Aug. 6 under Davis Cup rules, and that he would call the players together about a week before the matches for intensive practice.

"I think you can safely say that the team will be chosen from among Frankie Parker, Jack Kramer, Billy Talbert, Ted Schroeder and Gardnar Mulloy," he said. "I would like very much to have Tom Brown around for the pre-match practice, and Don McNeill, too, if he should change his mind about not playing for the Davis Cup."

Brown is the 23-year-old San Francisco comet who reached the semifinals of the recent Wimbledon championships.

Jack Kramer, he said, still is 15 pounds overweight from playing at Wimbledon and the bilsters on his racket hand aren't healed yet.

MINOR BASEBALL

Eagles bantams defeated Cardinals 13 to 8, in a Minor Baseball Association fixture. H. Leason was the winning pitcher.

Pitzer And Nex In Shutout Victory

Pitzer and Nex junior baseball team climbed up into the first berth in the Victoria Athletics Junior Baseball League alongside Douglas Hotel as a result of the service station boys' 10 to 0 shutout over the hotelmen Friday evening at Athletic Park. Each team has won three, lost two.

Bobby Brousseau on the mound for the P. and N. unit, was in his best form, striking out eight and allowing a trio of hits. Pawcett, pitching for the Douglas team, struck out six, but was nipped for 13 hits.

The game's hitting star was Gibbons of Pitzer and Nex, with three for three.

Race Bettor Freed

LONDON (CP)—An English magistrate Thursday acquitted a race bettor of fraud charges connected with bets of £41,000 ($164,000) which, the complaining ants charged, he was unable to cover.

Defence counsel contended there was no legal basis for the charge because "there is no offence known to law as an attempt to win money."

Lawyers for three London bookmakers, seeking to apply a 100-year-old anti-fraud law to the case, complained that the bettor, Reuben Yager, established credit through a successful series of bets and then placed larger bets, "intending to pocket any winnings that he could make and not intending to meet any losses."

Yager pleaded innocent to the charge.

South Africans Study Railways Here

Left to right: W. G. Ramsay, J. A. Kruger, D. H. C. Du Plessis, G. C. Bell, J. G. Grove, P. S. Blignaut, R. H. Botha, J. C. Steward, I. E. Eaglesham and J. A. Dalton.

Railway equipment valued at millions of dollars, needed by the South African government railways to augment rolling stock, may be ordered in Canada, D. H. C. Du Plessis, leader of an 11-man South African Railway delegation, said here today.

Mr. Du Plessis arrived in Victoria with 10 other South African railroaders Friday afternoon from Seattle. He is head of the delegation which is starting a Canada-wide tour.

Mr. Du Plessis, chief harbor, shipping and development manager for the South African railways, said that South Africa is looking to Canada as a source of supply for railway equipment.

The South African railways operate many thousand miles of rail and truck transportation in the Union, serving all the principal areas, Mr. Du Plessis said.

The delegation, he added, was particularly interested in Canadian rail lines and in the principal shipping ports of the Dominion.

Proceeding to Vancouver Sunday, the party will go east to Quebec City. Accompanying them from Vancouver to Winnipeg will be Dr. P. R. Viljoen, high commissioner from South Africa, and G. D. Mallory, of the department of trade and commerce, Ottawa.

Census To Be Taken Of Belgian Securities

A census of Belgian securities, except those held by the Canadian Custodian of Enemy Property, will be taken in Canada between August 1 and September 30, in compliance with the terms of a decree issued by the Belgian government in 1944, which provided for registration of all such securities in Belgium and abroad.

"Belgian securities" will be construed as meaning Belgian bearer securities issued by any public authority, limited company, trust company or other company in Belgium or in the Belgian Congo, or issued by the Kivu National Committee. Registration will be effected at any branch of a Canadian chartered bank, and the securities deposited effectively with the bank receiving the declaration. Securities not registered within the two months will be canceled and their value forfeited to the Belgian State.

Council Continues Battle On Granting Parade Permit

After a meeting of an hour and a half Friday, during which Mayor Percy George and Ald. Edward Williams tangled in sharp verbal-clashes several times, it was discovered that the section of the by-law granting the Chief of Police power to grant permits for street processions and parades was ultra vires of the City Council.

Subject of the discussion was the proposed centenary celebration-parade of the Roman Catholic Church, during which a procession carrying the Most Blessed Sacrament was slated for Aug. 4, to be followed by celebration of Pontifical Grand Mass in Athletic Park.

Mayor George reported to a conference attended by all aldermen except Ald. J. A. Worthington and Ald. W. L. Morgan, that in his opinion the City Council had no legal grounds on which to refuse to grant a meeting held with the Protestant clergy.

"DICTATORIAL"

Ald. Williams challenged this, as he challenged every statement made by the Mayor during the meeting, accusing him several times of being "dictatorial" in his handling of the matter, and of refusing to carry out the Council's desires. But a meeting held with the Protestant clergy.

Mayor George explained that following statements released to the Bishop would probably agree to this.

Mayor George, however, pointed out that the council could not hope to solve the theological problem by stopping the parade or any part of it. "We are only destroying unity by our actions," he declared.

Information Service Criticized, Defended

OTTAWA (CP)—Sharp criticism—and equally sharp defence—of the Canadian Information Service was heard Friday as the Commons discussed a resolution preliminary to a bill to keep the government information agency in operation.

The criticism came from Progressive Conservative members whose opposition was pin-pointed by an assertion by Gordon Graydon, P.C., Peel, Ont., that the service, successor to the Wartime Information Board, should be renamed the "Canadian Government Perpetration Service."

Health Minister Claxton, sponsoring the resolution, defended the service and denied "with all the vehemence possible" charges "implied or stated" that there had been "any sign of political propaganda at any stage" in the operation of the agency.

Stanley Knowles, C.C.F., Winnipeg North Centre, bespoke C.C.F. support for the measure, although he agreed Parliament should be kept informed of the service's operations.

Solon Low, Social Credit leader, said he could support the legislation only if assured the Canadian people would get what they wanted and not just what the government wished them to have.

He continued, "As an alderman I represent all creeds and colors in the city, and we as a council represent law and order. It is the privilege of the council to grant parades and not the Chief of Police, we have now been informed, but he would not have granted the parade permit if there were any danger of it disturbing the peace. I am sure if there had been any question in the chief's mind he would have referred the whole matter to the council for recommendation. In 1938 there was a similar procession, to Beacon Hill Park, and every year there are more processions from the convent to the nurses' home—all without any disturbance."

He insisted he could see no reason why the council should suddenly seek to exercise a power it had allowed to lapse for so many years.

Ald. J. D. Hunter, seconded by Ald. D. D. McTavish, moved that the Mayor's actions be approved and his recommendations endorsed, but this motion was never put to a vote as Ald. Williams challenged it saying he wanted the conference to go into committee of the whole council.

City Solicitor A. J. Patton read his opinion on the legality of the parade. He pointed out that by custom for many years and by a by-law passed some years ago, the chief of police always granted parade permits, but by law the Council was unable to delegate any authority, and under the Municipal Act, the authority for granting of parades was vested only in the City Council.

NEED NEW APPLICATION

It was then decided that Mayor George should approach Bishop John C. Cody and request that the carrying of the Blessed Sacrament be deleted from the procession. The mayor is also to inform Bishop Cody that he will now have to make application direct to the council for permission to hold the procession.

Ald. Margaret D. Christie, Ald. Williams and Ald. B. J. Gadsden all expressed the opinion that if the carrying of the Blessed Sacrament were deleted it would save much possible trouble and disturbance and they felt that

Fishermen Make Ready To Sail As First Tuna School Sighted

The first school of tuna this year has been sighted off the coast, according to word received here by B.C. Packers Ltd., from Seattle at noon today, and local and Vancouver tuna fishermen prepared to sail immediately for the grounds.

There are approximately 20 Victoria tuna boats, which have been waiting for the word. Approximately 100 craft from Vancouver are expected to take part in this year's tuna fishing.

A few tuna boats have been out searching the grounds for the past month, but no reports of schools had been received before today. The only catch of tuna reported prior to today was one made by a U.S. fisherman who took only four fish to Seattle this week after a two-week fishing trip.

A year ago today the first tuna catch of 1945 was brought to B.C. packers.

In the last two years tuna fishing off the coast of Washington and Oregon has expanded tremendously, and local fishermen have been ordering $14,000 and $18,000 craft from local wooden-ship builders. Two partly-completed tuna boats are at present lying at the Causeway. One was built by a veteran and the other by two men from Manitoba. Both boats are expected to be out within the month.

Mayor Lauds Cornish, Blackstock For Work

Mayor Percy George today paid highest tribute to the devotion to duty shown by Constables S. Cornish and J. D. Blackstock who, although unarmed and off duty, attempted to apprehend a car thief.

"It is most regrettable that Const. Cornish should have been so grievously injured in the carrying out of his duty," Mayor George said. "But I want to specially commend him and Const. Blackstock who carried on, apprehending the others in the car and tending to his wounded comrade."

Colwood Huts Not Suitable For School

None of the Colwood army huts offered for sale by War Assets Corporation would be particularly suitable for school purposes, R. H. Smith, buildings and grounds superintendent for the Greater Victoria school district, said today.

As a result, he said, he would renew efforts to obtain one of the huts at Tillicum camp and had written headquarters of War Assets at Montreal to see if one building could not be obtained.

He pointed out that if the remaining hutments at Tillicum camp are converted into housing units it will probably aggravate the shortage of classroom space at McKenzie Avenue school and make doubly necessary the obtaining of another room.

Year's Hottest Day As Glass Beats 90

Promise of a hot, sparkling Sunday, conditions that should attract thousands of citizens and tourists to beaches, lake and other favorite swimming holes and sun-tanning localities is contained in today's forecast from the weather bureau.

At 11.15 this morning the Gonzales Observatory reported today maximum temperature prediction was 85 on the hill—which means the hottest day of the year to date. It is hotter in town by six to seven degrees, which placed the city reading around 91 and 92.

"Regarding tomorrow, it looks like a continuance of today's weather," an official said. Minimum temperature tonight was forecast at 60.

July 17, 1941, was the hottest day on July records. The city registry was 95 and thus it was over the 100-mark on the city business section pavements. The glass indicator also hovered around the 100-mark in town on July 1, 1942. On July 15, 1935, and July 25, 1928, the hill recording was 90. June month's hottest day was the 25th in 1925, when the hill glass rose to 95.

Yesterday the mercury in town touched 90.

Victoria Ahead In Building Permits

The city of Victoria surged ahead in this week's building figures with 26 permits, valued at $88,062 being issued. Spanish was second with 15 permits, value $33,050 having been issued.

The city's permits included six for dwellings, and one for a $43,000 addition to the Home Furniture Store. The remainder were for alterations and minor buildings.

In Saanich 11 permits were issued for dwellings, with a total value of $51,250.

Permits for erection of three dwellings, representing a total construction value of $12,090, were issued in Esquimalt this week.

They were for a four-room dwelling on Armit Road at $3,500; a five-room on Lamson Street at $5,000 and a four-room on Admirals Road at $3,500.

Six permits were issued in Oak Bay during the week for construction valued at $9,080. One of the permits was for a $4,900 house. The remaining five were for alterations costing $4,180. Two of the permits were for a $2,500 alteration at 2460 Dalhousie Street, and for a $1,500 alteration at 454 Newport Avenue.

Three Playlots Get Equipment Installed

Installation of playground equipment is under way in three play lots in the city at the present time, W. H. Warren, parks superintendent, said today.

At the new playlot at Shakespeare and Ryan Streets to serve the Oaklands district, a complete set of junior play equipment is being installed.

Junior slides are being erected at the playlot at Cook and Hillside, and at Burnside playground between Burnside and Douglas Streets south of Francis Street.

Only Trampled Grass Shows Where Circus Shows Where Circus Entertained Victoria

By dawn this morning, all that remained at Victoria West Park of the Clyde Beatty Circus, which performed to record Victoria crowds for three days, were the outlines of the tents, wide areas of grass trampled down by thousands of feet, a few scattered dixe cups and peanut shells, and patches of sawdust and hay.

Immediately after the end of the last performance Friday night, the circus workers began taking down the big top, guiding the animals into their traveling cages, and loading the masses of equipment aboard the circus's own railway cars.

By 1.50 this morning, the equipment and animals were rolling along the railway towards Nanaimo, and by 2.50 the second section, bearing the performers and workers, was on its way.

Circus men said Victoria had given them one of the best receptions they had ever experienced, and looked upon Victorians as some of the most circus-conscious people they had ever met.

Mayflower Association, an organization of haulage and storage companies throughout the United States, has chosen Victoria as 1947 convention city, the B.C. Government Travel Bureau announced today.

Three hundred delegates from cities as far east as New York, Pittsburgh, Cleveland and Chicago will attend the convention.

"We are very much gratified," said E. G. Rowebottom, deputy minister of trade and industry, "since W. H. Currie, commissioner of the B.C. Government Travel Bureau, was very largely instrumental in bringing this convention to the city."

Retiring Causes Many Men To Die

You have to learn how to retire or else you will die in a very short time after quitting your work. Any man who has had no other interest in life but his profession or job would be better off not to retire. It is practically an impossibility for a man to become interested in other things of life at the age of 60 if he has not developed a liking for such interests during his younger years. Any man who plans to retire at 60 or 65, should commence preparing for his retirement many, many years in advance.

The article entitled "Retire to What" in the August edition of Good Housekeeping Magazine, will tell you how to prepare for retirement. Good Housekeeping is now on sale at your magazine dealers and is distributed on Vancouver Island by Lovicks' News Agency, Victoria, B.C.

One Woman's Day

By NANCY HODGES

SALT SPRING ISLAND
ON WEDNESDAY I paid one of my all-too-rare visits to lovely Salt Spring Island, to open a Red Cross fair at Vesuvius Bay.

And because the ferry does not make its regular schedule on Wednesdays during the summer months, I had to take advantage of the excursion trip.

This was routed to Mayne Island and Port Washington, on Pender, and not to Salt Spring. However, arrangements were made to drop me at Beaver Point—of which more anon.

It was a perfect day, ideal for an excursion, hot and sunny—as if the Weather Man were trying to atone for his remissness in holding back summer for so long.

PICNIC PERSIFLAGE
THREE LARGE BUSES took the excursionists out to Schwartz Bay where we boarded the Cy Peck. Everyone was in holiday mood.

Small boys raced about inspecting the lifeboats and other gadgets, and peered into the pilot house. Small girls shyly made friends with other small girls, and chattered excitedly.

A group of middle-aged women, after hilariously hailing one of their number who almost missed the boat, settled themselves down in a shady corner of the upper deck to exchange sallies and chuckles and bits of gossip.

Until the breeze sent them all scurrying away to a sunnier corner to continue their picnic persiflage.

A group of Victoria music-teachers, in holiday attire and holiday mood, were excursioning, too, casting aside, for the nonce, the problem of little Tommy's allergy to practice and little Mary's objection to scales.

VIEW AND VISTA
NEVER HAVE I SEEN the gulf looking more beautiful. The much-berated rain has clothed the island with a verdant cloak.

The water danced and shimmered in the sunshine, and distance vistas between the fir-clad hills open to reveal the tip of Mount Baker glistening like burnished silver against the turquoise sky.

A reminder from the captain, and a long toot on the ferry whistle told me that we were approaching Beaver Point, my point of embarkation.

Whereat much speculation was voiced among my fellow-passengers as to why we were thus deviating from the scheduled run.

"Meantime, we were getting nearer to the little wharf, where I could see several figures awaiting my arrival. Just as the ferry was approaching, however, Nature took a hand.

AN EXTRA RIDE
EVIDENTLY THE TIDE and other things combined against us, for just as I was standing waiting for the boat to ease in near enough to put out the gangplank, we backed away.

And the Cy Peck immediately put about and started off in the general direction of Fulford—rather to my alarm.

Such a wide sweep was taken to permit the ferry to make another approach to Beaver Point that it was some minutes before the manoeuvre became apparent either to me or to the group on the shore, some of whom, in the meantime, decided that I was being taken into Fulford Harbor instead, and departed.

However, after a little manoeuvring, the boat got near enough for me to get ashore by means of a gangplank and a very slippery and steep slip.

I don't know what jinx there is about me, but I seem to create situations—and minor excitements with alarming frequency, but it certainly adds piquancy to my peregrinations!

LAND OF LAKES
FROM BEAVER POINT, I was driven the twenty-two miles to Vesuvius, going by way of the new road just being made past Cuchon Lake. Salt Spring has no less than ten lovely lakes, nestling like jewels set amidst the fir-crowned slopes.

At St. Mary's Lake, I noticed the little colony of old age pensioners who have settled there in small rented cabins.

Most of them are men who do their own housekeeping, fetch their water from the lake and fuel from the woods, grow their own vegetables and enjoy the fishing for the trout in which the lake abounds.

Altogether it is a comparatively idyllic existence—as long as their health and strength hold out.

RED CROSS IN PEACE
AT VESUVIUS, I found would-be patrons lined up before the home-cooking stalls, just like the baker-shop-queues in town. Residents, visiting tourists and local holiday-makers turned out in force to help the Red Cross cause.

Now that the war is over there is an understandable tendency to slacken one's efforts. But the Red Cross faces almost as big a peacetime task as it did during the war. This poor old battered world will need its ministrations for a long time.

One of the biggest immediate needs is for food for less fortunate countries. That's why the Red Cross is leading the collection of all the meat ration coupons that can be spared by Canadians—to help out the people of Great Britain and Europe.

Hence I was glad to find at Salt Spring Island a little band of Red Cross workers who have not grown weary of well-doing—May their cause prosper!

Leading Executives Of C.N.R., C.P.R. In City Next Week

C. N. Vaughan, vice-president of the Canadian National Railways, and W. N. Neal, vice-president of the Canadian Pacific Railways and president of the Canadian Pacific Air Lines, are scheduled to arrive in Victoria next week-end.

Mr. Neal will arrive here Saturday on his semiannual inspection of the C.P.R. facilities and will meet Capt. O. J. Williams, B.C. Steamships Service manager. He is expected to stay here three days.

Mr. Vaughan will arrive here Sunday morning, meeting company officials and inspecting company facilities. He will continue his inspection Monday morning before leaving for Vancouver early in the afternoon.

Former Railroader, J. E. Griffith, Dies

John Edgar Griffith, 85, formerly deputy minister of railways for the B.C. government, died today at his home, 1229 Oliver Street.

Born in Portinorwic, North Wales, Mr. Griffith had come to Victoria 37 years ago. He retired from the provincial government service 13 years ago. He was a life member of the Engineering Institute of Canada.

Beside his wife he leaves two sons, E. W. Griffith, Victoria, and T. R. Griffith, Cowichan Bay.

Funeral services will be held at 10.45 Monday morning for St. Mary's Church, Oak Bay, where the service will be conducted by Archdeacon A. E. de L. Nunns at 11.

Masked Man Runs From Hospital

Police are investigating a report that a man wearing a dark handkerchief over the lower part of his face entered the Jubilee Hospital at 120 this morning and left after being seen.

Miss Jessie Gropp, telephone operator at the hospital, said she saw the masked man come in from the front door and then run when she looked up.

He was wearing a dark suit and a dark hat, she said.

Ambulance Members Get St. John Awards

Awards in the Order of St. John for three Victoria members of the executive of the British Columbia Branch of the St. John Ambulance Association were announced from provincial headquarters today.

Hon. E. C. Carson, Minister of Public Works, and now serving his second term as president of the B.C. Branch was made a Commander (brother) of the order. T. W. S. Parsons, O.B.E., Commissioner of B.C. Police and for many years an active member of the provincial executive, was made an Officer (brother). A similar award was made to G. G. Edwardson, provincial secretary for the last 10 years.

Notification of the awards was received from the secretary general of the order.

Orders-In-Council

The B.C. government has authorized a 50 per cent jump in the prices of unsold lots in Units 1 and 2 of the University Endowment Lands at Point Grey and raised the cost of buildings to be erected there to a $8,000 minimum.

The order-in-council passed Friday notes that land prices for the lots in the two units were reduced in 1938 and that the 50 per cent increase is on the basis of the price schedule of that time.

Other orders-in-council have approved the by-law of the municipality of Maple Ridge to borrow $150,000 for the acquisition of waterworks now operated by Stevens Ltd. and to extend the plant, and of the municipality of Glenora in the Okanagan Valley empowering it to borrow $60,000 for installation of a waterworks system.

Mines Committee Meets Here July 29

The committee appointed by Mines Minister R. C. MacDonald to hear representations on whether or not a 44-hour work week is feasible in the B.C. hard-rock industry will hold hearings at the Parliament Buildings here at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. July 29 and 30. Dr. John F. Walker, committee chairman, announced today.

Other members of committee are James Dickson, chief inspector of mines for the B.C. government, and Dr. Hartley Sargent, chief mining engineer for the government. Dr. Walker is deputy minister of mines for the B.C. government.

Conversion Of Giant War Plant Into Peace Palace Nearing End

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y. (AP)—A $17,783,000 plant which last month still was turning out weapons of war, today neared complete conversion into a palace of world peace.

With only three weeks to go until the United Nations' final moving date from Hunter College in the Bronx, contractors increased their staff of 300 men to speed the make-over of the sprawling Sperry Gyroscope Company factory. The U.N. already has opened several offices here.

The cost of reconversion is estimated up to $1,700,000. This town of 688 population, situated just inland from the north shore of Long Island in prosperous Nassau County, already is feeling the influx of the U.N., which plans to remain the next three to five years.

FOOD AND LIQUOR

With strict zoning laws, there is little chance of immediate business expansion within the town, which now has only two commercial establishments—a delicatessen and a liquor store. However, restaurants and taverns along the broad highways and in the nearby villages look for added business and the housing situation has become more acute.

Foreign Plays In Drama Festival Opening Aug. 5

Plays in Danish, French and Russian will be included in the program of the International Drama Festival at the Royal Victoria Theatre from Aug. 5 to 10.

Following the official opening by Lieutenant-Governor W. C. Woodward at 8 o'clock Aug. 5, four plays will be presented. Victoria Little Theatre will give "White Iris," while Vancouver's Dutch Group will present "Modern History of Holland" in the Dutch language.

"The Romance of the Willow Pattern," by the Golden Dragon Guild of this city and "Red Wax," by New Westminster's Vagabond Players will complete the program.

"Village Evening," played in their native language by members of Victoria's Ukrainian Canadian Society, will be a feature of Tuesday's presentations. Also on the program that evening will be "Andante," by the Britannia Mines Players' Club; "My Nieces Must Marry," by Vancouver's Sons of Norway and "Dust of the Road," by the St. Barnabas Players.

The Mongate Players from Vancouver, formed of Chinese-Canadians, will give "Chinese Love," and "The Singing Soul" Wednesday evening. Victoria Little Theatre will present "Thread of Scarlet," presented by Queen's Little Theatre, will be a feature of Thursday's program.

Other plays include "Murder at Mrs. Loring's," by the Community Self-Help Group, and "The Mother Who Went Away," by Centennial Players.

Theatre Players of Calgary will give "Bath-Sheba of Saareman," Friday, and the Portland Civic Theatre will play "The Miracle of St. Anthony." Seattle will be represented by the Tryout Theatre in a play written for the festival, "Hello, 12 Bucks." Vagabond Players in "Payment in Full," and a non-competitive entry by Victoria Girls' Pipe Band will be included.

Saturdays matinee will include Vancouver's Dave Junior Group in "The Ugly Duckling," Esquimalt Players in "The Romancers," Act I, and "The Princess and the Pea," spoken in Danish by the Hans Christian Anderson Society of Seattle.

Best English play, best foreign play and best intermediate play will be presented in the finals Saturday evening.

Title of the French play by the Le Camp Francs of Shawinigan Lake is still to be announced.

Young Violinist Presents Program

A difficult and exacting program was excellently rendered at the Summer School of Education in the Friday recital by Mervin Cummings, talented young Victoria violinist.

In the Brahms' D major violin concerto he improvised a cadenza of his own composing, showing great versatility.

Other program offerings were the Beethoven Sonata in E flat, and "Suite Espagnole," by Joaquin Nin.

Victoria Wilkinson, as accompanist, also gave a finished performance.

TENT MEETINGS

Commencing Sunday the Church of the Nazarene will hold a series of evangelistic services, in a tent at Queen's Avenue and Blanshard Street. There will be a service each week night at 8, except Saturday and on Sundays at 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m.

Eight Victoria Yachts To Compete In Race For Temple Trophy

At 9.30 tomorrow morning, eight vessels of the Royal Victoria Yacht Club will sail in a race for the Ben B. Temple Trophy. The race will take the craft from the club anchorage to Brodie Ledge to a mark off William Head, and return.

The entries are: Loon, A. D. Crease; Galatea, Dr. J. Stewart; Four Winds, Albert James; May D, Ned Ashe, Richmond II, Jack Holden, Quest, F. Angus; Margaret D., A. Wright, and 3 L's, N. Sorenson.

The cup was presented by Mr. Temple who has been a club member for 50 consecutive years. The cup was given "for an auxiliary cruiser race over a course of not less than 40 sea miles in the vicinity of Victoria."

Although straight-line distance of the course set for Sunday is only 26 miles, tacking will bring the vessels voyaging to over the 40-mile minimum.

Dr. G. Bissett's Salishan will be patrol boat for the race. Dr. R. Wride will be timekeeper. It is expected the race will take approximately nine hours.
